

Mrs. Ella Simmons is home after almost two months' vacation with family members. She went to San Francisco as a guest of her daughter, Arva and husband, Bill Stewart and to attend the temple marriage at Oakland of her grandson, Clark Stewart and his bride and a lovely reception for them at her LDS Ward Cultural Hall. She also visited her sister, Donna Bennett at Oakland. After a month's stay, she went to Pocatello, Idaho to attend the wedding reception of a grandson, Bruce Hopkins and Joyce Mickelson. She was at Victor, Idaho for Memorial Day, too. This is when they hold their annual homecoming, where they meet friends and relatives from years back, enjoy a program, dinner and a dance in the evening. She met one man who hadn't been back to Victor for 40 years. It was a happy reunion for the many who attended.

10 Aug 1967